

ATTAR

Meaning: Attar is a fragrant oil or perfume derived from natural sources, often used in traditional and cultural contexts.

1. The ancient marketplace was filled with the rich scent of attar, drawing in curious visitors.
2. She gifted her friend a small bottle of attar, believing it would bring her good fortune.
3. The perfumer carefully blended the attar, creating a unique fragrance that captivated everyone.
4. Attar has been used for centuries in traditional ceremonies and spiritual practices.
5. He described the attar as a symphony of floral and spicy notes that danced in the air.
6. In her travels, she discovered an exquisite attar made from rare roses found only in the region.
7. The artisanal shop specialized in handcrafted attar, each with its own story and allure.
8. With every drop of attar, the memories of her grandmother came flooding back.
9. Attar is often considered a luxurious alternative to synthetic perfumes.
10. The aroma of the attar lingered long after she had left the room, enchanting all who remained.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attar>