

ATTENTIVE

Meaning: Attentive: paying close attention to someone or something; being observant and considerate of others' needs or feelings.

1. The teacher was especially attentive to the needs of her students.
2. He was an attentive listener, always giving his full attention during conversations.
3. The dog remained attentive to its owner's commands, eager to please.
4. She appreciated how attentive her partner was to her feelings during tough times.
5. An attentive audience can greatly enhance the performance of a speaker.
6. His attentive nature made him a favorite among his colleagues.
7. During the meeting, she took attentive notes to ensure she wouldn't miss any details.
8. The attentive care provided by the nurses made a significant difference in the patient's recovery.
9. Children are often more attentive when the learning environment is engaging.
10. She gave him an attentive look, signaling that she was fully absorbed in what he was saying.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attentive>