ATTESTATIVE

Meaning: Attestative refers to providing evidence or testimony that confirms the truth or validity of a statement or event.

1. The witness provided an attestative account of the events that transpired that night.
2. In legal contexts, attestative documents serve as important evidence of a person's claims.
3. Her attestative testimony brought clarity to the confusing circumstances of the case.
4. The notarized statement was deemed attestative and was accepted by the court.
5. They required an attestative declaration from the expert to validate the findings.
6. His attestative remarks emphasized the importance of integrity in research.
7. The committee relied on attestative evidence to make their final decision.
8. An attestative signature from the authorized representative was necessary for approval.
9. The report included several attestative statements to support the conclusions drawn.
10. In academic writing, an attestative reference can strengthen the credibility of the argument.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attestative