

ATTITUDINAL

Meaning: Attitudinal refers to relating to or involving a person's attitudes or beliefs.

1. The study focused on attitudinal shifts among young voters during the election.
2. Her attitudinal change after the workshop surprised her colleagues.
3. Understanding attitudinal factors can improve team dynamics in the workplace.
4. The survey measured both behavioral and attitudinal responses to the new policy.
5. His attitudinal approach to challenges often inspired others to adopt a similar mindset.
6. Researchers are examining the attitudinal barriers that prevent people from seeking mental health support.
7. The campaign aimed to create an attitudinal shift regarding environmental sustainability.
8. Educators are increasingly aware of the attitudinal differences in student engagement.
9. The workshop addressed attitudinal issues that affect communication within diverse groups.
10. Attitudinal assessments can provide valuable insights into consumer preferences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attitudinal>