

ATTITUDINARIANISM

Meaning: Attitudinarianism is a tendency to hold and stubbornly maintain personal beliefs or attitudes, often resisting change or new ideas.

1. Attitudinarians often resist change, clinging to outdated beliefs.
2. The movement of attitudinarianism emphasizes the importance of personal convictions.
3. Despite the evidence presented, his attitudinarianism prevented him from accepting new ideas.
4. She admired his commitment to attitudinarianism, though it sometimes led to stubbornness.
5. Attitudinarianism can create barriers to effective communication among diverse groups.
6. In the face of modern challenges, attitudinarianism may hinder progressive solutions.
7. His attitudinarianism was evident in every discussion, regardless of the topic.
8. The conflict escalated due to the attitudinarianism displayed by both sides.
9. Understanding attitudinarianism is crucial for resolving deep-seated disagreements.
10. Attitudinarianism, while rooted in tradition, can stifle innovation and growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attitudinarianism>