

ATTORNEYSHIP

Meaning: Attorneyship refers to the position or role of being an attorney or lawyer, particularly in the context of practicing law and representing clients.

1. The attorneyship of a seasoned lawyer can significantly impact the outcome of a case.
2. She decided to pursue attorneyship after interning at a prestigious law firm.
3. His attorneyship was marked by a commitment to civil rights and social justice.
4. Many aspiring law students dream of achieving attorneyship in their desired field of practice.
5. The attorneyship application required a thorough review of her academic and professional background.
6. He gained valuable experience during his attorneyship that prepared him for private practice.
7. With her attorneyship in corporate law, she navigated complex business negotiations with ease.
8. The attorneyship program offered mentorship opportunities with experienced legal professionals.
9. After several years of diligent work, he was finally awarded his attorneyship.
10. Her attorneyship focused on defending clients in criminal cases and ensuring fair trials.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attorneyship>