

ATTRACT

Meaning: To draw or pull towards oneself, often by appealing to interest or desire.

1. The colorful flowers in the garden attract a variety of butterflies.
2. His charming personality tends to attract many new friends wherever he goes.
3. The advertisement was designed to attract more customers to the store.
4. Bright lights and music can attract crowds at fairs and festivals.
5. She wore a stunning dress that was sure to attract attention at the party.
6. The promise of adventure can attract thrill-seekers from all over the world.
7. Innovative technology often attracts investors looking for new opportunities.
8. Bird feeders in the backyard can attract a wide range of local wildlife.
9. The aroma of freshly baked bread will attract anyone nearby.
10. Her talent for singing is likely to attract the interest of music producers.
11. The bright colors of the flowers tend to attract bees and butterflies.
12. Her charming personality can easily attract new friends wherever she goes.
13. The marketing campaign was designed to attract more customers to the store.
14. He used a magnet to attract small metal objects scattered on the floor.
15. The aroma of freshly baked bread can attract anyone walking by the bakery.
16. Their innovative design is likely to attract attention at the exhibition.
17. The documentary aims to attract viewers interested in environmental issues.
18. Children are often attracted to the vibrant toys displayed in the shop window.
19. Music has the power to attract people together, creating a unique atmosphere.
20. The promise of adventure can attract young explorers to distant lands.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attract>