

ATTRACTABILITY

Meaning: Attractability refers to the quality or ability of something to draw interest or appeal to individuals, particularly in contexts like marketing or social media.

1. Attractability plays a crucial role in determining the success of marketing campaigns.
2. The study explored the factors influencing the attractability of various social media platforms.
3. Her charm and charisma significantly enhanced her attractability in social settings.
4. Businesses often invest in design to improve the attractability of their products.
5. Attractability can vary greatly depending on an individual's personal preferences.
6. Research indicates that physical appearance can impact a person's overall attractability.
7. Understanding the concept of attractability can help improve interpersonal relationships.
8. The attractability of a job offer may depend on both salary and work-life balance.
9. Cultural influences can shape our perceptions of attractability in different ways.
10. Efforts to increase the attractability of a destination can boost local tourism significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attractability>