

ATTRACTABLE

Meaning: ATTRACTABLE: Adjective describing a quality or personality that is capable of drawing others in or appealing to them.

1. The concept of an attractable personality often leads to successful social interactions.
2. In a crowded room, she seemed to have an attractable aura that drew people in.
3. Many believe that kindness is one of the most attractable qualities a person can possess.
4. His attractable nature made him a favorite among his colleagues and friends.
5. The vibrant colors of the artwork were highly attractable to passersby in the gallery.
6. She found the idea of an attractable leader to be essential for inspiring others.
7. The attractable features of the new product helped it stand out in a competitive market.
8. Having an attractable demeanor can significantly impact one's dating life.
9. The scientist studied the principles of attractable forces in physics and their applications.
10. Her smile was so attractable that it could light up even the darkest room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attractable>