

ATTRACTION

Meaning: Attraction refers to a feeling of being drawn to someone or something, often characterized by a strong interest or emotional pull.

1. The attraction between the two was undeniable from the moment they met.
2. She felt a strong attraction to the vibrant art scene in the city.
3. Their shared interests created an instant attraction that drew them closer.
4. The amusement park's newest roller coaster was the main attraction for visitors.
5. His magnetic personality made him a natural source of attraction for others.
6. The attraction of the mountains always called her back during the summer months.
7. They explored the attraction of the historic ruins, captivated by their beauty.
8. The festival was a major attraction, bringing in crowds from all over the region.
9. Her smile had an inexplicable attraction that left him mesmerized.
10. The scientific study of attraction helps us understand human relationships better.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attraction>