

ATTRIBUTABLE

Meaning: ATTRIBUTABLE: capable of being regarded as the result of or caused by something.

1. The increase in sales is attributable to the new marketing strategy.
2. Her success in the competition is largely attributable to her rigorous training.
3. The decline in bee populations is attributable to various environmental factors.
4. Many health issues are attributable to poor diet and lack of exercise.
5. The improvements in productivity are directly attributable to the new software implementation.
6. This phenomenon is attributable to a combination of economic and social changes.
7. The accident was attributable to a mechanical failure in the vehicle.
8. The rise in temperatures can be largely attributable to climate change.
9. His achievements in the field are attributable to years of dedicated research.
10. The surge in interest in renewable energy is attributable to increasing awareness of climate issues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attributable>