

ATTRIBUTING

Meaning: Attributing refers to the act of assigning a cause or source to a particular outcome or effect.

1. Attributing success to hard work can motivate others to strive for excellence.
2. Scientists are attributing the recent changes in climate to human activity.
3. She has a talent for attributing meaning to seemingly random events in life.
4. The report is attributing the decline in sales to increased competition.
5. Attributing blame without understanding the full context is often counterproductive.
6. He is attributing his recent achievements to the support of his mentor.
7. Attributing artistic inspiration to personal experiences can deepen the audience's connection.
8. The team is attributing their failure to miscommunication and lack of preparation.
9. Attributing one's failures to external factors can hinder personal growth.
10. Many people are attributing the rise in mental health issues to social media usage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attributing>