

AUCTION

Meaning: Auction: a public sale in which goods or property are sold to the highest bidder.

1. The rare painting was sold at auction for a record-breaking price.
2. She decided to put her vintage jewelry up for auction to make some extra money.
3. Attending the charity auction was a highlight of the evening for many guests.
4. He was nervous as he raised his paddle at the auction, hoping to win the item.
5. The auction house displayed the items beautifully to attract more bidders.
6. After a fierce bidding war, the antique vase finally found a new owner.
7. They held an online auction to reach a wider audience for their collectible items.
8. With a limited number of bidders, the auction ended up being quite competitive.
9. She had always dreamed of owning a classic car, and the auction was her chance.
10. The excitement in the room was palpable as the auctioneer called out the next item.
11. The antique vase was sold at auction for an astonishing price.
12. She decided to put her painting up for auction to raise funds for charity.
13. The auction house had a reputation for handling rare collectibles.
14. Bidders raised their paddles excitedly during the live auction event.
15. After weeks of anticipation, the auction finally took place last Saturday.
16. He successfully outbid others in the auction for the vintage car.
17. Online auctions have made it easier for people to buy and sell items.
18. The charity auction featured a weekend getaway as one of the top prizes.
19. She felt a rush of adrenaline as the auctioneer called out the bids.
20. The items at the estate auction attracted a diverse crowd of collectors.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/auction>