

AUCTIONEER

Meaning: An auctioneer is a person who conducts the sale of goods or property by bidding, typically in a public setting.

1. The auctioneer raised his gavel, signaling the start of the bidding war.
2. She had always dreamed of becoming an auctioneer at prestigious art auctions.
3. The auctioneer's voice echoed through the hall as excited bidders placed their offers.
4. He quickly gained a reputation as a skilled auctioneer for vintage wines.
5. The charity event featured a charismatic auctioneer who energized the crowd.
6. An experienced auctioneer can often sell items for much higher than their estimated value.
7. The auctioneer expertly navigated the lively atmosphere of the packed room.
8. During the estate sale, the auctioneer showcased an impressive collection of antiques.
9. The auctioneer's rhythmic cadence kept the bidders engaged and enthusiastic.
10. After years of training, she finally landed a job as an auctioneer for a major house.
11. The auctioneer skillfully raised the bidding, capturing everyone's attention.
12. As the auctioneer called out the bids, tension filled the room.
13. She trained for years to become a professional auctioneer in the art world.
14. The auctioneer's gavel struck down decisively, signaling the end of the bidding.
15. Everyone eagerly awaited the auctioneer's announcement of the final sale price.
16. With a charismatic demeanor, the auctioneer engaged the crowd effortlessly.
17. The charity event featured a renowned auctioneer known for his entertaining style.
18. He worked closely with the auctioneer to showcase the rare collectibles.
19. The auctioneer's voice boomed across the hall, making it easy for all to hear.
20. Participants were thrilled to have the chance to bid with such an experienced auctioneer.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/auctioneer>