

AUDIBLENES

Meaning: Audibleness: the quality or state of being audible or capable of being heard.

1. The audibleness of the musician's performance captivated the entire audience.
2. Her whispers lacked the audibleness needed to convey the secret effectively.
3. In the quiet room, even the smallest sounds had a remarkable audibleness.
4. The engineers adjusted the microphone to enhance the audibleness of the speaker's voice.
5. His speech was clear, but the audibleness varied depending on his distance from the crowd.
6. They tested the audibleness of the alarm to ensure everyone would hear it in an emergency.
7. The teacher emphasized the importance of audibleness when presenting in front of the class.
8. With the windows open, the audibleness of the street traffic became quite distracting.
9. The film's sound design prioritized the audibleness of dialogue over background noise.
10. Despite the chaos, her calm voice maintained an impressive audibleness that commanded attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/audibleness>