AUGMENT

Meaning: To increase or enhance something by adding to it.

1. The company plans to augment its workforce with new hires next quarter.
2. She decided to augment her studies by attending online courses.
3. The new features were designed to augment the user experience significantly.
4. To augment his income, he started a side business selling handmade crafts.
5. The artist used bright colors to augment the emotional impact of her painting.
6. Researchers aim to augment traditional methods of treatment with innovative therapies.
7. They implemented strategies to augment their customer base and increase sales.
8. The funding will help augment the resources available for community development projects.
9. He took on additional responsibilities to augment his skills and professional growth.
10. The charity event was organized to augment support for local families in need.
11. The new software is designed to augment the user experience significantly.
12. Scientists are looking for ways to augment the effectiveness of the vaccine.
13. Her goal is to augment her knowledge in renewable energy technologies.
14. The partnership was established to augment the resources available for research.
15. They plan to augment their advertising budget to reach a wider audience.
16. The company aims to augment its workforce with skilled professionals.
17. Using technology can augment traditional teaching methods in the classroom.
18. The team hopes to augment their performance through rigorous training.
19. She decided to augment her wardrobe with a few statement pieces for the season.
20. The company plans to augment its workforce by hiring additional engineers.
21. She decided to augment her income by taking on freelance projects.
22. He sought to augment his knowledge by enrolling in advanced courses.
23. To augment their capabilities, the team invested in state-of-the-art equipment.

24. The government approved funding to augment public transportation services.

25. They used a variety of techniques to augment the flavor of the dish.

26. Her contribution aimed to augment the community’s access to education.

27. The artist wanted to augment his mural with vibrant colors and textures.

28. This initiative will help augment the local economy and create new jobs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/augment