

AURATED

Meaning: AURATED (adjective): coated or adorned with gold or a gold-like finish, often used to describe decorative objects or jewelry.

1. The aurated jewelry sparkled under the dim lights of the exhibition.
2. She admired the aurated frame that surrounded the stunning painting.
3. In ancient times, many artifacts were aurated to signify their importance.
4. The aurated edges of the manuscript gave it an air of elegance.
5. Artisans often aurated their pieces to enhance their visual appeal.
6. The museum showcased an aurated crown belonging to a long-forgotten king.
7. He was fascinated by the intricate details of the aurated vase.
8. The aurated design on the book cover caught the attention of many visitors.
9. During the restoration, they discovered that the piece had originally been aurated.
10. The aurated surfaces reflected light beautifully, creating a mesmerizing effect.
11. The ancient artifact was beautifully aurated, shimmering under the museum lights.
12. She wore an aurated necklace that caught everyone's attention at the gala.
13. The coin was aurated to enhance its value and appeal to collectors.
14. His description of the aurated landscape made it come alive in our minds.
15. The pastry was aurated with a thin layer of gold leaf, making it a luxurious treat.
16. AURATED designs often symbolize wealth and prestige in art.
17. The architect envisioned an aurated facade for the new cultural center.
18. The limited edition book came with aurated edges that added to its charm.
19. Their wedding rings were aurated, reflecting their commitment and love.
20. Artisans are known for their skill in creating aurated objects that mesmerize onlookers.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aurated>