

AURITED

Meaning: Aurited: having been treated or altered to exhibit a golden color or appearance, often through the presence of gold or gold-like characteristics.

1. The rare mineral was aurited, giving it a brilliant golden hue.
2. After extensive testing, the scientist confirmed that the sample had been aurited.
3. The jewelry designer was thrilled to discover that her latest piece had been aurited.
4. He explained how the process of auriting enhanced the stone's natural beauty.
5. The ancient artifact was found aurited, much to the archaeologist's delight.
6. With its aurited surface, the sculpture caught the light in mesmerizing ways.
7. They marveled at the aurited leaves, shimmering under the autumn sun.
8. The rare collection included a coin that had been aurited, making it highly valuable.
9. During the exhibit, the aurited pieces were the main attraction for visitors.
10. She learned that aurited materials were often used in high-end fashion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aurited>