

AUSPICIOUS

Meaning: AUSPICIOUS: conducive to success; favorable or promising.

1. The clear skies on their wedding day were seen as an auspicious sign for their future together.
2. Starting the new project on the first day of spring felt auspicious for the team's success.
3. She considered the unexpected promotion an auspicious beginning to her career in the company.
4. The ancient texts suggested that an auspicious alignment of the stars could bring great fortune.
5. His auspicious comments during the meeting boosted everyone's morale and creativity.
6. They chose to launch their product during the festival, believing it would create an auspicious atmosphere.
7. The auspicious start to their journey filled them with hope and excitement for what lay ahead.
8. Her auspicious entry into the industry quickly garnered attention from major players.
9. They held the ceremony on a date deemed auspicious by the local astrologer.
10. The auspicious nature of the event attracted a large crowd eager to witness the celebration.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/auspicious>