

AUSTER

Meaning: AUSTER (adjective): characterized by a severe or strict appearance, lacking in ornamentation or warmth.

1. The austere landscape stretched endlessly under the gray sky.
2. Her austere demeanor often made her seem unapproachable.
3. The artist opted for an austere palette to convey the somber mood.
4. In times of crisis, the government adopted an austere economic policy.
5. They lived in an austere cabin, far removed from modern comforts.
6. His austere lifestyle reflected his commitment to minimalism.
7. The book's austere prose challenged readers to think deeply.
8. She found beauty in the austere architecture of the old monastery.
9. The teacher's austere approach to discipline earned her respect.
10. An austere silence fell over the room as the news was announced.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/auster>