

AUTHORITATIVELY

Meaning: Authoritatively: in a manner that conveys confidence and expertise, leaving no doubt about the validity of the information presented.

1. The scientists spoke authoritatively about the implications of their findings.
2. She presented the evidence authoritatively, leaving no room for doubt.
3. The teacher addressed the class authoritatively, ensuring that everyone understood the rules.
4. He answered the questions authoritatively, demonstrating his deep knowledge of the subject.
5. The report was written authoritatively, reflecting years of research and expertise.
6. They were able to negotiate authoritatively, securing the best terms for their clients.
7. The guidelines should be followed authoritatively to ensure compliance with regulations.
8. The expert testified authoritatively in court, influencing the jury's decision.
9. She conducted the meeting authoritatively, maintaining control over the discussion.
10. The manual was crafted authoritatively, serving as a definitive resource for users.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/authoritatively>