

AUTOMATICALLY

Meaning: Automatically: in a manner that occurs without human intervention or effort.

1. The lights will turn off automatically when you leave the room.
2. When you save your work, it is automatically backed up to the cloud.
3. The system automatically updates itself every night without any user input.
4. She automatically assumed he would be late based on his previous behavior.
5. The program automatically generates reports at the end of each month.
6. He automatically reached for his phone when he heard the notification sound.
7. The doors will lock automatically once the time reaches midnight.
8. When you start the car, the navigation system automatically syncs with your phone.
9. Their laughter automatically brightened the mood in the room.
10. The software automatically detects any errors and suggests corrections.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/automatically>