

AVAUNT

Meaning: Avaunt means to depart or withdraw, often used as a command to dismiss or banish something unwanted.

1. Avaunt the doubts that plague your mind and embrace the possibilities ahead.
2. The magician shouted, "Avaunt!" as he waved his wand, sending the illusions away.
3. In the face of adversity, she would often cry out, "Avaunt negativity!"
4. The ghostly figure commanded the trespassers to avaunt from its haunted grounds.
5. His friends urged him to avaunt his fears and take the leap of faith.
6. With a dramatic flourish, the actor declared, "Avaunt, all who oppose me!"
7. The knight raised his sword and bellowed, "Avaunt, foul creatures of the night!"
8. As the storm raged outside, she told her worries to avaunt into the ether.
9. "Let the past avaunt," he advised, "and focus on the bright future ahead."
10. The ancient spell required the wizard to chant, "Avaunt!" to dispel the darkness.
11. Avaunt the doubts that cloud your path to success.
12. The magician raised his wand and commanded, "Avaunt, darkness!"
13. With a flourish, the knight declared, "Avaunt, foul creatures of the night!"
14. As the sun rose, she whispered, "Avaunt, shadows of the past."
15. He waved his hand dismissively and said, "Avaunt, trivial matters!"
16. Avaunt the naysayers, for your vision is worth pursuing.
17. In a dramatic gesture, she shouted, "Avaunt, all negativity!"
18. The king's proclamation echoed through the hall, "Avaunt, treachery!"
19. With a sense of triumph, he cried, "Avaunt, all who would doubt me!"
20. Avaunt, fear, for today is a new beginning.
21. Avaunt, foul spirit, and leave this place in peace.
22. The knight shouted, "Avaunt!" as he raised his sword against the dark figure.

23. With a wave of her hand, she commanded, "Avaunt from my presence!"
24. The villain was ordered to avaunt, but he only laughed in response.
25. As the storm approached, the sailor cried, "Avaunt, tempest!"
26. He believed it was time to avaunt all negativity from his life.
27. "Get thee hence! Avaunt!" she exclaimed, banishing the uninvited guest.
28. The crowd cheered as the magician waved his wand and proclaimed, "Avaunt!"
29. With a firm resolve, she decided to avaunt her fears and embrace the challenge.
30. The specter recoiled, unable to withstand her commanding, "Avaunt!"
31. Avaunt the doubts that cloud your vision and pursue your dreams with confidence.
32. The knight, with a fierce battle cry, commanded his foes to avaunt from his path.
33. As the storm approached, the sailor shouted, "Avaunt, dark clouds, for I will brave the sea!"
34. The critic urged the artist to avaunt the naysayers and trust in her unique vision.
35. During the debate, he told his opponent to avaunt any notions of defeat and stand tall.
36. With a flourish, she declared, "Avaunt, negativity! I choose to embrace positivity instead."
37. The ancient scroll read, "Avaunt all fear, for courage is the path to greatness."
38. He felt compelled to avaunt the whispers of doubt that echoed in his mind.
39. In the face of adversity, she cried out, "Avaunt, obstacles! I will not be deterred!"
40. The nobleman ordered the intruders to avaunt his castle grounds at once.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/avaunt>