

AVERMENT

Meaning: Averment is a formal statement or declaration, often made under oath, asserting the truth of a fact or claim.

1. The lawyer's averment was key to proving her client's innocence.
2. His averment about the incident was met with skepticism by the jury.
3. In her averment, she confidently stated the facts that supported her case.
4. The defendant's averment that he was not present at the scene was backed by several witnesses.
5. Her averment during the trial changed the course of the investigation.
6. The politician's averment regarding the budget cuts sparked a heated debate.
7. His written averment provided clarity to a complex legal issue.
8. Despite his averment of innocence, the evidence against him was compelling.
9. The scientist's averment about the experiment's results was validated by peer review.
10. An averment made under oath carries significant weight in court proceedings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/averment>