

AVERSION

Meaning: Aversion is a strong feeling of dislike or repugnance toward something.

1. Her aversion to public speaking often kept her from pursuing promotions at work.
2. He felt an instinctive aversion to the dish when he saw the strange ingredients.
3. Despite her aversion to confrontation, she stood her ground during the debate.
4. The child's aversion to green vegetables made mealtime a constant challenge.
5. Many people have a natural aversion to anything that seems overly complicated.
6. His aversion to loud noises made him uncomfortable in crowded places.
7. She developed an aversion to the city after living there for several years.
8. Their aversion to spicy food limited their options at the restaurant.
9. An aversion to risk often prevents investors from pursuing lucrative opportunities.
10. The therapy aimed to help him overcome his aversion to social situations.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aversion>