

AVERTIMENT

Meaning: Avertiment refers to a warning or cautionary notice about potential dangers or issues.

1. The doctor issued an avertiment about the potential side effects of the medication.
2. An avertiment regarding the upcoming storm was shared by the local meteorological service.
3. She took the avertiment from her friend seriously and decided to prepare for the worst.
4. The organization released an avertiment aimed at raising awareness about climate change.
5. His avertiment did not go unnoticed, prompting a quick response from the authorities.
6. The teacher gave an avertiment to the students before the exam started.
7. In her speech, she included an avertiment about the dangers of misinformation.
8. The company sent out an avertiment about possible delays in shipping due to weather conditions.
9. An avertiment was placed on the website, warning users of a recent security breach.
10. The community held a meeting to discuss the avertiment concerning rising crime rates.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/avertiment>