

ADVISE

Meaning: To inform or notify someone about something.

1. We should advise the team about the upcoming changes to the project timeline.
2. Please advise me if you have any updates on the meeting agenda.
3. It's important to advise the stakeholders before making any decisions.
4. The manager decided to advise the staff regarding the new policy implementation.
5. Can you advise the clients about the potential delays in delivery?
6. I would like you to advise the committee about my absence at the next meeting.
7. To ensure clarity, please advise everyone involved about their roles for the event.
8. The professor will advise the students on how to approach their final projects.
9. We need to advise the public about the road closures this weekend.
10. It's wise to advise your friends if you plan to change your travel itinerary.
11. Please advise me of any changes to the schedule.
12. The manager will advise the team about the new policies.
13. I would appreciate it if you could advise me before making a decision.
14. She didn't advise her friends about the surprise party.
15. Can you advise him to bring the necessary documents?
16. It's important to advise your supervisor of any issues promptly.
17. I hope they will advise us on the outcome of the meeting.
18. They need to advise the public regarding the safety precautions.
19. Be sure to advise the clients of any updates to their accounts.
20. You should advise your neighbors about the planned construction.