

AVOIDER

Meaning: Avoider: a person who deliberately evades or avoids confrontations, responsibilities, or difficult situations to maintain comfort or peace.

1. The avoider often sidesteps difficult conversations to maintain their peace.
2. In group projects, the avoider tends to contribute less to avoid potential conflict.
3. She recognized her friend as an avoider, always finding excuses to skip social events.
4. Being an avoider can sometimes lead to missed opportunities for personal growth.
5. The avoider's tendency to procrastinate often resulted in last-minute stress.
6. He was labeled an avoider because he never addressed his fears directly.
7. It's challenging to work with an avoider who shies away from constructive criticism.
8. The avoider's behavior can frustrate those who prefer open discussions.
9. When faced with confrontation, the avoider chooses silence over engagement.
10. Understanding the mindset of an avoider can help foster more effective communication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/avoider>