

AVOLATION

Meaning: Avolation refers to the act of breaking or failing to comply with a rule, law, or agreement.

1. A violation of trust can deeply impact personal relationships.
2. The company faced severe penalties for the violation of safety regulations.
3. Her actions constituted a blatant violation of the code of conduct.
4. They decided to report the violation to the appropriate authorities.
5. The court ruled that there had been a significant violation of human rights.
6. Ignoring the terms of the contract was a serious violation of their agreement.
7. He expressed regret over his unintentional violation of privacy.
8. The violation of the law resulted in a lengthy investigation.
9. She was shocked to learn about the violation of her intellectual property.
10. A violation of ethical standards can tarnish a professional reputation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/avolation>