

AVOWED

Meaning: Avowed: openly declared or affirmed, often with a sense of commitment or belief.

1. She avowed her commitment to the project during the meeting.
2. Despite the controversy, he avowed his support for the new policy.
3. The author avowed his love for nature in every chapter of his book.
4. After much reflection, she finally avowed her feelings for him.
5. They avowed their loyalty to the organization in front of the board.
6. He avowed that he would always stand by his friends, no matter the cost.
7. The candidate avowed to uphold the values of honesty and integrity.
8. In her speech, she avowed her dedication to improving the community.
9. He avowed his innocence, insisting he had nothing to do with the crime.
10. During the interview, she avowed her passion for the arts and education.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/avowed>