

AVOWEE

Meaning: Avowee: a person who makes a public declaration or acknowledgment, especially in a legal or formal context.

1. The avowee spoke passionately about her commitment to environmental activism.
2. In the court, the avowee's testimony was crucial to the outcome of the trial.
3. As an avowee of the charity's mission, he dedicated his time to volunteering.
4. The avowee expressed her love for the arts during the community gathering.
5. His role as an avowee made him a key figure in the organization's decision-making process.
6. Being an avowee, she felt a sense of responsibility to uphold the group's values.
7. The avowee's candid remarks drew attention from the audience.
8. As an avowee of truth, he refused to compromise his integrity.
9. The avowee recounted her experiences with sincerity and conviction.
10. In her speech, the avowee highlighted the importance of unity and collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/avowee>