

AWAKEN

Meaning: To awaken means to cause someone to stop sleeping or to inspire a particular feeling or awareness in someone.

1. The sound of the birds singing helped to awaken her from a deep sleep.
2. He hoped that the documentary would awaken a sense of curiosity in the viewers.
3. As the sun rose over the horizon, it began to awaken the world from its slumber.
4. The gentle breeze seemed to awaken memories of her childhood spent by the lake.
5. She took a deep breath, trying to awaken the energy she needed for the day ahead.
6. His words were powerful enough to awaken a passion for change in the community.
7. With each new experience, they began to awaken a deeper understanding of themselves.
8. The smell of fresh coffee was enough to awaken her senses and pull her out of bed.
9. Meditation helped him awaken a sense of peace he had long forgotten.
10. The unexpected news was enough to awaken her fears and anxieties about the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awaken>