

AWARN

Meaning: 'AWARN' (verb): To inform or alert someone about a potential danger or important event.

1. The teacher decided to awarn the students about the upcoming exam.
2. Before the storm hit, the meteorologist made sure to awarn the local residents.
3. I had to awarn my friend about the potential risks of investing in that stock.
4. It's important to awarn others when they are about to make a serious mistake.
5. The signs were meant to awarn hikers of the dangerous wildlife in the area.
6. She took a moment to awarn her colleague about the deadline approaching.
7. They issued a statement to awarn the public of the health risks associated with the product.
8. The coach would often awarn the players about the importance of teamwork.
9. He felt it was his duty to awarn his neighbors about the increase in crime.
10. The government sought to awarn citizens about the effects of environmental pollution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awarn>