

AWAY-GOING

Meaning: Away-going refers to something that is departing or moving away, such as a tide or a vehicle.

1. The away-going tide left a treasure trove of shells on the beach.
2. As the away-going train pulled out of the station, passengers waved goodbye.
3. She watched the away-going sunset paint the sky in vibrant hues of orange and pink.
4. The away-going sound of laughter filled the air as the party moved to the patio.
5. He felt a sense of loss as he observed the away-going procession of cars.
6. The away-going gusts of wind rustled the leaves in the trees.
7. With the away-going crowd, she felt a mixture of excitement and sadness.
8. The away-going bus was filled with students eager for summer vacation.
9. The away-going aroma of baked bread lingered in the air long after dinner.
10. As the away-going helicopter faded into the distance, the sound of its rotors became faint.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/away-going>