

AWE-STRICKEN

Meaning: AWE-STRICKEN: filled with a profound sense of wonder or amazement.

1. The children stood awe-stricken as the magician pulled a rabbit from his hat.
2. She was awe-stricken by the breathtaking view from the mountaintop.
3. The audience was left awe-stricken after witnessing the breathtaking performance.
4. He gazed awe-stricken at the intricate details of the ancient architecture.
5. The scientist was awe-stricken by the beauty of the newly discovered species.
6. As the fireworks lit up the night sky, everyone remained awe-stricken in silence.
7. She felt awe-stricken when she first entered the grand cathedral.
8. The explorers were awe-stricken by the vastness of the untouched landscape before them.
9. He listened, awe-stricken, as his grandmother recounted stories of her youth.
10. The photograph captured the awe-stricken expressions on their faces perfectly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awe-stricken>