AWELESS

Meaning: AWELESS (adjective): lacking in awe or wonder; uninspiring or unremarkable.

1. The performance was so lackluster that the audience felt awe-less.
2. His presentation failed to inspire, leaving the room feeling completely awe-less.
3. The landscape, while beautiful, was oddly awe-less compared to the mountains nearby.
4. After hearing the same story for the hundredth time, the children were awe-less.
5. The movie's predictable plot made it an awe-less experience for the critics.
6. Walking through the museum, she felt strangely awe-less despite the famous artworks.
7. The concert was technically proficient but left many fans feeling awe-less.
8. In a world filled with wonders, some moments can still feel delightfully awe-less.
9. His reaction to the breathtaking view was surprisingly awe-less and indifferent.
10. Despite the grandeur of the event, she found it to be an awe-less occasion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aweless