

AWHILE

Meaning: AWHILE (adverb): for a short period of time.

1. I haven't seen her in awhile, and I miss our talks.
2. Please wait here for awhile while I grab my things.
3. It took awhile for the team to settle into a rhythm.
4. After sitting in traffic for awhile, I finally reached my destination.
5. He plans to travel for awhile before settling down.
6. Let's take a break and relax for awhile in the park.
7. I haven't read a good book in awhile; I should start one.
8. She decided to meditate for awhile to clear her mind.
9. We chatted for awhile over coffee, reminiscing about old times.
10. It feels like forever since we last hung out, but it's only been awhile.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awhile>