

AWKLY

Meaning: Awkly: in a manner that is awkward or clumsy, often causing discomfort or unease.

1. He felt awkly as he stumbled over his words during the presentation.
2. The awkward silence lingered in the room after her unexpected question.
3. She moved awkly in the unfamiliar shoes, trying to maintain her balance.
4. His attempts at humor fell awkly flat, leaving everyone in an uncomfortable silence.
5. They exchanged awkly glances, unsure of how to continue the conversation.
6. The child walked awkly, still adjusting to his new, oversized bicycle.
7. Her smile looked awkly when she realized she had forgotten his name.
8. It was an awkly moment when he tripped just as he was about to greet her.
9. She felt awkly in the crowd, unable to find a familiar face.
10. The interaction was awkwardly charming, leaving both of them slightly embarrassed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awkly>