

AWKWARD

Meaning: Awkward refers to a situation that is uncomfortable, embarrassing, or lacking in social grace.

1. The conversation became awkward when he mentioned her ex-boyfriend.
2. She had an awkward moment when she realized she had forgotten his name.
3. His attempt at humor fell flat, leaving an awkward silence in the room.
4. Walking into the party alone felt particularly awkward for her.
5. They shared an awkward glance after accidentally bumping into each other.
6. The interview turned awkward when the candidate misunderstood a question.
7. Trying to dance in front of a crowd made her feel awkward and self-conscious.
8. He always seemed to make the most awkward comments during serious discussions.
9. It was awkward for everyone when the power went out during the presentation.
10. Her awkward attempt to flirt was met with an uncomfortable laugh.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awkward>