

AWL

Meaning: An awl is a pointed tool used for making small holes in wood, leather, or other materials.

1. The carpenter reached for his awl to make a pilot hole in the wood.
2. She used an awl to create small holes in the leather for sewing.
3. After searching through the toolbox, he finally found the rusty awl.
4. An awl can be a handy tool when crafting custom furniture.
5. He carefully pressed the awl into the soft wood to mark his measurements.
6. The artisan demonstrated how to use an awl to puncture the fabric.
7. With an awl in hand, she began to transform the raw materials into art.
8. He appreciated the precision an awl provided when working with delicate pieces.
9. The awl was essential for ensuring accuracy in her intricate designs.
10. She always kept an awl nearby when doing repairs around the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awl>