

AWORK

Meaning: Awork refers to tasks or activities that require effort and are typically related to employment or projects.

1. She was eager to dive into her work and finish the project ahead of schedule.
2. The team gathered at the office to brainstorm new ideas for the upcoming campaign.
3. His dedication to his work often inspired others to strive for excellence.
4. After hours of hard work, she finally completed the presentation she had been perfecting.
5. Finding a balance between work and personal life can be challenging for many professionals.
6. He realized that taking breaks during work could increase his overall productivity.
7. Her passion for her work was evident in the creativity she brought to each task.
8. The atmosphere at the workplace improved significantly after the team-building exercise.
9. Working late into the night, he felt a sense of accomplishment as he met his deadline.
10. She often shared her experiences at work to motivate her peers and foster collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awork>