

AWRONG

Meaning: AWRONG (adjective): Incorrect or unjust; morally or factually in error.

1. The answer he provided was completely awrong, leading to further confusion.
2. She felt that his actions were awrong and unjustifiable.
3. It seems that there was something awrong with the calculations in the report.
4. His interpretation of the rules was awrong, resulting in a penalty for the team.
5. I knew immediately that the information I received was awrong and misleading.
6. The decision they made was not just unwise but also fundamentally awrong.
7. Finding an awrong detail in the contract could have serious consequences.
8. Her gut feeling told her that something was awrong in the situation.
9. The teacher pointed out that his reasoning was awrong and needed revision.
10. After reviewing the evidence, it was clear that the accusation was awrong.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/awrong>