

AZURINE

Meaning: Azurine is a deep blue color often used in art and can refer to a blue mineral sometimes mistaken for others in the gemstone industry.

1. The artist chose azurine as the primary color for her latest painting.
2. In the gemstone industry, azurine is sometimes confused with other blue minerals.
3. The azurine hue of the ocean was breathtaking during the sunset.
4. He wore an azurine tie that perfectly complemented his navy suit.
5. The azurine pigment gave the mural an ethereal quality that captivated passersby.
6. Some believe that azurine has healing properties and promotes tranquility.
7. The flags waving in the breeze featured an azurine background with white stars.
8. During the festival, the sky turned an azurine shade that was almost surreal.
9. Her eyes sparkled with an azurine intensity that drew everyone's attention.
10. The designer incorporated azurine accents into the fabric to add a touch of elegance.
11. The artist chose azurine for its vibrant hue, which perfectly complemented the ocean theme of her painting.
12. In the gemstone shop, I was captivated by the deep azurine stones on display, each one more striking than the last.
13. The azurine color of the sky at dusk created a breathtaking backdrop for our outdoor wedding.
14. As she mixed the paints, she realized that a touch of azurine would bring the landscape to life.
15. The fabric swayed gently in the breeze, its azurine shade reflecting the shimmering waters nearby.
16. He described the azurine mineral as a rare find, prized among collectors for its unique properties.
17. The azurine accents in the room added a refreshing pop of color against the neutral walls.
18. During the presentation, the speaker highlighted the significance of azurine in ancient art and culture.

19. Her azurine dress was the talk of the evening, drawing compliments from everyone at the gala.
20. The natural beauty of the azurine lake was breathtaking, inviting photographers from all around to capture its essence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/azurine>