

BABBLEMENT

Meaning: BABBLEMENT: The act of talking in a rapid, nonsensical, or meaningless manner; chatter or murmur.

1. The constant babble of the brook was soothing to her ears.
2. His speech was filled with such babble that no one could follow his argument.
3. During the meeting, the babble of voices made it hard to concentrate.
4. She dismissed his babble as mere nonsense, unworthy of her attention.
5. The child's babble was a delightful soundtrack to the afternoon.
6. As the crowd grew, the babble turned into a cacophony of opinions.
7. I could hardly understand her through the babble of chatter in the café.
8. In the background, the babble of the television blended with the sound of cooking.
9. His babble about politics bored me to tears, lacking any depth.
10. In a moment of silence, the babble around them faded into the background.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/babblement>