

BABBLER

Meaning: Babbler: a type of bird known for its cheerful chirping or a person who talks excessively and often indiscreetly.

1. The babbler chirped happily from its perch in the tree.
2. She was a notorious babbler, always sharing secrets that weren't hers to tell.
3. In the world of birds, the babbler is known for its lively and chatty nature.
4. He couldn't focus on his work with the constant babbler in the next cubicle.
5. As a babbler, she loved to gossip about the latest happenings in town.
6. The babbler's song filled the air with a joyful melody on a spring morning.
7. During the meeting, his role as a babbler caused more distractions than contributions.
8. In folklore, the babbler often serves as a messenger, delivering news far and wide.
9. Her babbler tendencies often led to misunderstandings among her friends.
10. The babbler flitted from branch to branch, delighting everyone with its charming antics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/babbler>