

BABEL

Meaning: Babel refers to a confusing mixture of voices or languages, often resulting in chaos or a lack of understanding.

1. The city's bustling marketplace felt like a modern-day Babel, with voices from every corner of the world blending together.
2. In the midst of the conference, the discussions quickly turned into a Babel of opinions and ideas.
3. The ancient tale of Babel serves as a cautionary reminder about the consequences of human pride and ambition.
4. After the recent merger, the office transformed into a Babel, as employees from different cultures struggled to communicate.
5. Children playing in the park created a Babel of laughter and excitement that filled the air.
6. Her multilingual abilities allowed her to navigate the Babel of languages spoken in the diverse neighborhood.
7. The artist's installation was inspired by the story of Babel, depicting the chaos of misunderstanding among people.
8. During the global summit, the room erupted into a Babel as delegates passionately debated their viewpoints.
9. The digital age has created a new Babel, where messages often get lost in translation across platforms.
10. As the crowd gathered for the festival, it became a vibrant Babel of music, art, and cultural expression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/babel>