

BABILLARD

Meaning: Babillard (noun): A person who gossips excessively or engages in idle chatter.

1. The babillard at the café never seemed to run out of gossip.
2. Her babillard nature made her the center of attention at every gathering.
3. He was warned about the babillard who would share secrets without a second thought.
4. The babillard told tales that often blurred the line between truth and fiction.
5. During the meeting, the babillard interrupted with a story that had everyone laughing.
6. She enjoyed the company of the babillard, always eager to hear the latest news.
7. His babillard tendencies sometimes got him into trouble with friends.
8. The babillard's endless chatter filled the room with a lively atmosphere.
9. Everyone loved her, but they knew to be cautious around the babillard.
10. Even in quiet moments, the babillard couldn't resist sharing a tidbit or two.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/babillard>