

BACCIFORM

Meaning: Bacciform refers to a fruit shape that resembles or is similar to berries.

1. The bacciform fruit of the plant resembled small, juicy berries.
2. Botanists classified the bacciform shapes among various fruit types.
3. She was fascinated by the bacciform characteristics of the new species.
4. The bacciform structure allowed for easy dispersal by birds.
5. He noted the bacciform appearance of the grapes growing in the vineyard.
6. In her research, she focused on the bacciform traits of tropical plants.
7. The bacciform seeds were vital for the plant's reproduction cycle.
8. Their bacciform form made them appealing to both animals and humans.
9. The exhibit showcased a variety of bacciform plants from different climates.
10. Understanding the bacciform nature of these fruits helped in their cultivation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bacciform>