

BACKBONE

Meaning: Backbone: the fundamental support or main strength of something, or the series of vertebrae that encases and protects the spinal cord in vertebrate animals.

1. The backbone of a healthy relationship is built on trust and communication.
2. In biology class, we learned that the backbone protects the spinal cord.
3. The company's backbone consists of its dedicated employees and innovative strategies.
4. To succeed in this competitive industry, you need the backbone to stand up for your ideas.
5. The project lacked direction because there was no clear backbone to guide it.
6. Many species have evolved over time, yet humans are unique in their complex backbone structure.
7. A strong legal framework serves as the backbone of a fair and just society.
8. She has a strong backbone and isn't afraid to voice her opinions.
9. In times of crisis, the community proved to be the backbone of support for one another.
10. The backbone of any successful team is effective collaboration and shared goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/backbone>