

BACKBONED

Meaning: Backboned: possessing a backbone or structural support, which metaphorically implies strength, resilience, or firmness in character or resolve.

1. The backboned structure of the animal allows for greater flexibility in movement.
2. She approached the tough conversation with a backboned resolve that surprised everyone.
3. The backboned design of the bridge ensures it can withstand heavy loads and harsh weather.
4. His backboned attitude in the face of adversity inspired his colleagues to stand firm.
5. Many species in the ocean are backboned, showcasing the diversity of marine life.
6. The company's backboned leadership has been instrumental in navigating market challenges.
7. Her backboned commitment to her principles never wavered, even in difficult situations.
8. The research revealed that backboned animals have distinct evolutionary advantages.
9. With a backboned philosophy, the organization focuses on integrity and transparency.
10. Their backboned friendship endured through trials and tribulations, proving its strength.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/backboned>